(a) whether Government are aware of the U.S. Government's decision to tighten the immigration laws;

(b) if so, what will be its likely impact on Indian citizens visiting the U.S. for study, research and employment purposes; and

(c) whether Government propose to take up this issue with the U.S. Government?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI R.L. BHATIA): (a) Government are aware of immigration legislation which has been proposed in the US Congress and which is currently at the Committee stage. The proposed legislation is expected to be debated in the House of Representatives and Senate in 1996.

(b) The proposed immigration legislation would have implications for legal immigration into the US based on family relationship, by imposing restrictions on family reunification, medicare and welfare benefits for dependents of legal immigrants/ permanent residents. It would also adversely affect employment-based immigrants in terms of reduction of numbers and professionals going from countries, including India, to the United States for brief periods to provide on-side services, particularly in the field of software exports.

(c) Government are alert, to developments in this regard. Sections of the Indian-American community are actively taking up their concerns regarding these laws with Members of the US Congress.
